

COMMONWEALTH of VIRGINIA

COMMONWEALTH TRANSPORTATION BOARD

Post Office Box 1475
RICHMOND, VA 23218

WHITTINGTON W. CLEMENT
CHAIRMAN

Agenda item #

RESOLUTION OF THE COMMONWEALTH TRANSPORTATION BOARD June 17, 2004 MOTION

Made By: Seconded By: Action:

Title: - Naming the bridge on Route 632 on structure 6241 in Scott County as the
"William Pace Memorial Bridge"

WHEREAS, the Board of Supervisors of Scott County did adopt a resolution by which the Commonwealth Transportation Board was petitioned to name the bridge on Route 632 on structure 6241 in Scott County as the "William Pace Memorial Bridge"; and

WHEREAS, Mr. William Pace served in General George Washington's Commander-in-Chief's Guard during the Revolutionary War and was one of the original forty-seven members and one of the four remaining survivors of said Guard at the end of the Revolutionary War; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Pace was a participant in the Battles of Brandywine, Germantown, Monmouth, Connecticut Farms, King's Bridge and Yorktown; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Pace was honorably discharged from service in November 1783 and lived his later years in what is now Scott county and is buried in the Jones Cemetery, which is near the bridge on Route 632 in Scott county; and

WHEREAS, the Board of Supervisors of Scott County has agreed to pay the cost and expense incident to the placement of appropriate markers.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED, that the Commonwealth Transportation Board, in accordance with Section 33.1-250 of the Code of Virginia, does hereby declare that the bridge on Route 632 on structure 6241 in Scott County be named the "William Pace Memorial Bridge"; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that appropriate markers, as directed by the Department, be placed calling attention to this designation.